

West Midlands PHEM Study Day – 6th April 2017 Major Incident & Mental Health

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 0845– 0900 | Registration |
| 0900 – 0945 | Morbidity & Mortality Case Review
Adam Nash, Critical Care Paramedic, TAAS |
| 0945 - 1030 | CBRN incidents – how to manage them
Stuart Batham, HART paramedic, WMAS |
| 1030 – 1045 | Coffee (not provided) |
| 1045 - 1130 | Top tips on managing a Major Incident – the first 30 minutes
Justin Burke-Jones, Emergency Preparedness, WMAS |
| 1130 – 1215 | A hospital's response to Major Incidents-the PHEM/ED interface
Luke Peachey, Emergency Planning Officer, UHCW |
| 1215 - 1300 | Lunch (not provided) |
| 1300 – 1345 | Mental health regulations – the not so basic basics
Inspector Michael Brown, West Midlands Police |
| 1345 – 1430 | When psychiatry meets trauma
Rob Cole, Head of clinical practice, WMAS |
| 1430 -1445 | Coffee (not provided) |
| 1445 – 1530 | Street triage – the complexity of putting theory into practice
Inspector Michael Brown, West Midlands Police |
| 1530 – 1600 | Journal club
Arun George-Consultant Emergency Physician, UHCW/TAAS |
| 1600 | Closing remarks and feedback |

Venue: Clinical Sciences Building, UHCW NHS Trust, Coventry. CV2 2DX
Awarded 6 CPD points by FPHC, The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh

To reserve a place email drarungeorge@gmail.com